THE [Numb. 720.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the freshest Advices Foreign and domestic.

THURSDAY, February 22, 1759.

BOSTON, January 1, 1759.

Friday last the Great and General Court or Assembly of this Province met here; and the Day following his Excellency the Governor opened the Session with the following Speech, viz.

Gentlemen of the Council, and House of Representatives.

BY the Blessing of God on the Events of the last Year, the British Empire in America is greatly relieved and re-established. Fort Duquesne on the Ohio has since I met you last, been given up to his Majesty's Arms; an Event, as tending to secure his Majesty's Rights in that Country, to open a most extensive Trade in it, to confirm our ancient Alliances therein, of the utmost importance to the British Interest; and I congratulate you thereon. But it all is not yet effected, which seems absolutely necessary to be done, that his Majesty's Colonies may be in a State of Peace and Security, we must expect to be engaged in, and cannot too soon prepare for the Service of another Year; which if the vigorous Efforts of the Colonies be equal to the promising Circumstances in which Things now are, both fair, according to the Course of human Events, to be decisive.

It appears in the first Place necessary for us to close with the Year, the Accounts of the Service during the Year. And in the next Place, I cannot but recommend to you the retaining our Troops in Half-Pay, in such Manner, as to reward those who have served faithfully, and to have our Numbers ready to join the King's Forces when call'd into the Field.

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives,

I have directed the State of the Accounts of this last Year's Operations, and the State of the several Appropriations and Funds to be laid before you; which I could hope from the Sums already granted by the Province, and from the Contributions that we have the strongest Influence to hope for, we may yet be able to carry on Services with the same Zeal and Vigour that we have hitherto done.

Gentlemen of the Council, and House of Representatives.

This is the usual Time in which you take under your Consideration Matters relative to the several Order and Oeconomy of the Government, and private Interests; I should hope that these Points may be so dispatched this Session, that when you meet again at the Opening of the Campaign, you may have nothing else but that alone to attend to. And from the Attention that this Assembly has always shown to have every Expence that could be saved to the Province, I know their Measures will be so dispatched, as to avoid the Expence of long Session.

T. POWNALL.

To his Excellency THOMAS POWNALL, Esq; Captain-General and Governor in Chief in and over his Majesty's Province of the Massachusetts-Bay.

May it please your Excellency,

WE his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council and House of Representatives of the Province of the Massachusetts-Bay in General Court assembled, think ourselves bound in Duty to return your Excellency our hearty Thanks for your Speech from the Chair at the Opening of this present Session; the several Matters of Importance to the Province recommended to our Consideration, we shall take into our serious Consideration, and proceed upon them with all the Dispatch that the Nature of the Affairs will admit of.

We are sensible that the Year past has been a Year of great Success to his Majesty's Arms, and that the Reduction of Fort Duquesne and the Country adjacent, is an Event of the greatest Importance to the British Interest; and we congratulate your Excellency thereon. We are also sensible that the Year past has been a Year of great Expence to the Province, and that the Year to come will require the same Zeal and Vigour in the Prosecution of the War, that we have hitherto exerted; and we shall endeavour to proceed in such Measures as shall be found necessary for the Defence of his Majesty's Subjects in this Province, and for the Annoyance of the Enemy, with the utmost Dispatch.

We are sensible that the Time in which we are now met together, is the usual Time for us to take under our Consideration Matters relative to the several Orders and Oeconomy of the Government, and private Interests; and we shall endeavour to have every Expence that could be saved to the Province, and every Measure that may be so dispatched this Session, that when we meet again at the Opening of the Campaign, we may have nothing else but that alone to attend to.

And from the Attention that this Assembly has always shown to have every Expence that could be saved to the Province, I know their Measures will be so dispatched, as to avoid the Expence of long Session.

Letter from an Officer of the Antelope, Man of War, dated Spithead, Nov. 6.

"We failed from Hamoaze the 3d of October, and next Day spoke with the Tilbury, 27th, who then met with nine Sail of French Men of War, 64 of the Line, and 3 Frigates, with two Ships in Tow. It was late in the Evening when we fell in with them. We took them for English Ships, but they soon convinced us of the contrary, by hoisting French Colours, and giving us their Broadsides as they went past us within Pistol Shot. We immediately wore and faced after them, making ready to engage, but could see nothing of them till next Morning, when we discovered three of our own Ships on our Weather Bow, and four Sail of the Enemy under our Lee. We made the Signal, and bore down to them, and they drew into Line of Battle ahead, in order to engage us; but just as we came within Gun Shot, they put before the Wind, and, to our Shame, got off, to our great Mortification. We continued the Chace after them till Night, and just as it was dark saw a large Ship standing athwart us, which, as soon as we came abreast of her, hoisted French Colours, fired a Gun, and Struck. We arrived this Day at Spithead."

Letter from an Officer of the Antelope, Nov. 5.

"We have taken the Belliqueux, a 64 Gun Ship, in Bristol Channel. We fired only three Shot, the none. I am surprised at their Behaviour, as they had 400 Men in Health, besides Sick. She is as large as one of our 80 Gun Ships, and only 17 Months old. There are on board 100 Bales of Fur, besides the Officers private Ventures, and she is looked upon at Bristol to be worth 150,000l.

Nov. 4. Advices of very good Credit inform us, that the King of Prussia lost but 24 Pieces of Cannon in the late Action, and of these he retook 12. His Majesty had one Horse killed under him, and a Page killed at his Side. Of the late Prince Royal's Regiment, consisting of 780 Men, only 170 are left. It is strongly suspected that the Prussian Army could not have been surprized in the Manner it was, without Treachery.

Ten Ships are stranded on the Coast of Jutland.

November 9. We hear that Admiral Boscawen, when he waited on his Majesty, met with a particularly kind Reception; and that his Majesty asked a great many Questions concerning the Place, the Health of the Sailors and Soldiers, &c. and upon the Whole expressed an uncommon Satisfaction. His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and Prince Edward, were also very particular in their Enquiries. It is remarkable that there has been little or no Sickness on board the Admiral's Ship either in going, or coming home, except when they went ashore at Halifax, where about forty fell sick, occasioned by Drinking and other Irregularities; but that when the Admiral ordered the Sick on board again, they recovered apace, chiefly owing to their being deprived of Liquor, and to the working of the Ventilators, which were of infinite Service in the Preservation of the People on board. It is generally thought, that if Ventilators were more used, it would preserve the Lives of as many Sailors in a Year, as are lost by Accident, or in a Battle.

We hear that the Union Man of War, of 90 Guns, which was missing, and apprehended to be lost, some Things having been seen floating near Weymouth after the late hard Weather, has since been spoke with at Sea, all well on board.

The French talk of a general Armament at Brest and Rochefort. They also say that their Ambassador at Constantinople has wrote, that they need give themselves no Uneasiness about the warlike Preparations in the Ottoman Empire, as they are designed against the Arabs only.

It is said, in a Letter by the last Flanders Mail, That the King of France had been lately under very great Uneasiness, since he had been informed Damien had been hired to murder him; and what added greatly to his Uneasiness was, that he had learnt he had been set on to do it by one of too near an Affinity to suffer, and who was too much beloved by the Friends to be exposed.

Nov. 10. The Venus Man of War, Capt. Hartfion, is arrived at Plymouth from Admiral Saunders, and brings an Account, that the Admiral was in Chace of six French Men of War when he left the Fleet.

Nov. 15. The King of Prussia made two several Marches to gain the Pass of Gorlitz, where he surprized a small Body of Austrian Horse, and made about 600 Prisoners, among whom were 20 Officers.

It is said that, early in the Spring, two Expeditions will be undertaken upon the Coast of France, in which it is proposed to employ 40,000 Land Forces.

Nov. 11. Several of the Nobility appeared at Court Yesterday in their Carriages covered with enamelled Copper; which made the greatest Appearance that has been seen for many Years.

The Princess Dowager of the late Prince Royal of Prussia, was safely delivered of a Prince the 31st ult.

Nov. 14. We hear that a Letter from M. de Montcalm at Canada, to the Ministry of Versailles, hath been intercepted; and that in this Letter Montcalm assures them, with great Concern, that without a Peace, that Country cannot possibly hold out beyond the Middle of next Summer: And therefore he implores them to make Peace on any Terms; adding, that, let the Concessions in America be as great as they will, if 30 or 35 Soldiers, (which an a Peace may be easily spared) be sent to him in each Ship that goes out, he will undertake in a few Years to recover every Inch of Ground which they shall be forced to yield by the Treaty of Peace.

The following little Anecdote deserves to be taken Notice of. A Native of the County of Kildare in Ireland, whose Name is Hammond, belonging to the Second Regiment of Guards, being wounded in the Arm at the late Affair of St. Cas, the Colonel who commanded that Battalion, and saw the Blood run plentifully from him, desired him to withdraw: No, says he, please your Honour, he does not deserve to see the King's Bread, who retires at the first Scratch; and going to load his Piece, which he had just before fired off, found the Muzzle was, by some Accident, beat in close, and rendered unserviceable: He took up another Piece which lay by a dead Comrade, when, at the Instant he was presenting it, he received another Ball in the same Arm, and his Serjeant then insisted upon his having his Wounds dressed. Not yet, says he, my Boy, you Pay more at the Dogs; and stooping to take up his Firelock, he fell, through Weakness, and was unable to rise again. It is said a handsome Appointment is intended for him, if he lives to return to England.

Nov. 16. The Talk of Alteration in the Ministry is at an End: Things having been amicably settled in Council, to the Satisfaction of all Parties.

Colonel Clive is expected home by the next Shipping; and it is thought he will bring near a Million Sterling.

The Lords of the Admiralty have promoted Capt. Hamar to the Rank of a Rear Admiral.

The Empress Queen has established a Poll-Tax.

The Plague still rages greatly at Constantinople.

Some Transports are taking in Stores of almost every Kind intended for Cape-Breton.

Several Ships of War, in different Docks, and in great Forwardness, are ordered to be finished with all Expedition, and fitted for the Sea.

Prince Maurice of Anhalt Dessau is not dead of his Wounds, as was reported, but mends daily.

November 25. The following are a Part of the Squadron which lately sailed from Portsmouth, under the Command of Commodore Hughes; viz.

St. George 90 Guns; Norfolk 80, Berwick 74, Lion 60, Panther 50; and Lancaster 74 Guns, to follow.

Among the Land Forces, are the following Regiments, viz. Elliot's, Barrington's, Armiger's, Old Ruff's, Watson's, and Dutoure's.

General Hopson, Commander in Chief.
Benjamin Tribe, William Lascelles, Aids de Camp.
Major-General Barrington.
Brigadier-General Haldane.

The Squadron and Transports were spoke with off Scilly on Tuesday Se'nnight by the Lenox Man of War, all well.

Thursday both Houses of Parliament met at Westminster, and the Session was opened with a Speech by Virtue of a Commission from his Majesty. The Commissioners were the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord Keeper, Lord President, &c.

We can with Pleasure assure the Public, that the King is so well recovered of his Indisposition, as to be able to receive and dispatch Business as before.

The Captain of the Belliqueux Man of War, of 64 Guns, taken in the Bristol Channel by his Majesty's Ship the Antelope, is in said, has sworn up a Remembrance against the Condemnation of the said Ship, and has put in his Plea thereupon, affirming it to be property to the Lords of Nassau, no under Prince of the Ships of any Power at War, whose dowry was an Empress's Dower by Treaty of Westphalia.——It is plain the Captain is no Civilian.

Liverpool, Nov. 17. On Friday last was received, the agreeable News of the Condemnation, in Doctors Commons of 800 Hogsheads of Sugar and other Goods, Part of the Cargoes of the Dutch Ships, a Dutch Privateer, and some Goods [illegible] by the Ship Resolution of this Port.

[illegible] Court of Admiralty [illegible] Court of Admiralty [illegible] Power, and the Commission directed to the Judge, by Virtue of the Charter of Hamburgh, passed [illegible] said Mr. Fowler, brought in a Dutch Schooner.

January 3. Yesterday in Term Time, was held a Court House in the Town, for the Trial of Pirates, Felonies, &c. when William Pickles, a Subject of his Majesty the King of Great Britain, was Master of the Sloop, Three Friends, belonging to St. Eustatia, was indicted to be concerned in Monday the 29th Instant, for piratically taking his Majesty's Enemies.

PORTSMOUTH (in New-Hampshire) January 3.

Capt. Grant sailed from Bristol the 22d of November; the next Day he met with a very hard Gale of Wind from N. to S. W. and on Saturday he got into Kinsale Harbour. In this Gale of Wind near 50 Sail of Vessels were cast away on the Coast of Ireland, and mostly lost; among which was a Snow, bound to New-York, having many Hands on board, Master and Passengers of which were drowned, besides a Woman and two Children, there being a Family on board.

A few Days ago Captain Josiah Beale arrived at York from Louisburg. Some Time after he came out he put into a Cove near the Bay of Fundy (where lay a small Schooner) in order to get some Water, which having procured, the next Day the Master, with a Boy belonging to the Schooner went on Shore a Gunning; soon after the Firing of some Guns were heard, and then 15 Indians with the Boy Prisoner (the Men being those were seen coming down to the Water side, who having got, they demanded one of the Vessels, but being refused, some Indians came off in two Canoes and a Boat, and boarded the Vessel the best in which was the Boy with three Indians under Cover, Beale's Men, who were Gunners Arms, and some Ball & Swivels, killed two of them, and then beside the Boat along Side, and wounded the other Indians, who having struck his Knife at into the Boy's Head, leapt into the Water and a large Dog on board Capt. Beale, immediately jump'd after him, seized him by the Neck, and soon dispatched him. The Indians (four of them killed) then withdrew. A Man on board the Schooner was shot through the Head; the Boy who was struck with the Hatchet, was taken out of the Boat alive, but died soon after.

BOSTON, January 15.

Friday last we had a very severe Storm of Wind and Snow, and it is said several Vessels have been cast away, but as yet we have no particulars of the Account that can be depended upon.

PHILADELPHIA, February 11.

Captain Coburne, of this Port, came home Passenger with Captain Rankin from St. Christopher's. He was taken on his Passage to Antigua by a French Privateer Brig, of 14 Guns, and carried to Guadaloupe. The same Vessel had before taken a Sloop from Maryland, bound to Antigua, and many other Vessels. He informs us, that they have 20 Privateers belonging to Guadaloupe, mostly Brigantines of good Force, and that they were fitting out a Ship, that would mount at least 30 Guns: That a Number of Prisons were lying there: The Prisoners all fare well, and as he was one Day with the Enemy, could not be particular as to the Vessels, whence they [illegible] but that there were several Quincy Men, and some New-England Men, among them. The French expected to be attacked by the English, and were hard at Work on their Fortifications.

Extract of a Letter from St. Kitt's, January 5.

"We Yesterday received the News from Antigua, of the Arrival of our Fleet destined for the French Islands, on the 30th of December, with a Fleet consisting of 30 Men of War (of which 12 are of the Line) and 40 Transports, with 6000 Soldiers."

On Tuesday last Capt. Rogers arrived here from Barbadoes, but left Antigua, and all the Fleet there, the 20th of December, and says it was said by a Person of Quality that came from Antigua, in the Bristol Privateer, that there were laid down 400 very capital Ships of War, Bombs and Sloops, besides 60 Sail of Transports, and that their Cargoes were already on board the Men of War; but were not to have Provisions put on board. The Fleet that went from Antigua consisted of 30 Sail of the Line, besides Frigates, Bombs, &c. and 60 Transports, with 6000 Soldiers.
